

Similarities in the Assassinations of Lincoln and Kennedy

Both presidents wanted to do away with usury and give people their own money. Immediately upon their deaths their monetary policies were overturned.

According to Oxfam, richest 1% will own more than all the rest by the end of 2016. This includes the bankers and the Roman Church. 52% of global wealth not owned by the richest 1% is owned by those in the richest 20%.

1. Lincoln was elected to Congress in 1846. Kennedy was elected to Congress in 1946.
2. Lincoln was the runner up for his party nomination in 1856; Kennedy in 1956.
3. Lincoln was elected President in 1860; Kennedy in 1960.
4. Both won with less than a majority vote.
5. Lincoln's wife lost a child while living in the White House; Kennedy's wife lost a child while living in the White House.
6. Lincoln's secretary was named Kennedy; Kennedy's secretary was called Lincoln. (Official sources claim that there is no proof of Lincoln ever having had a secretary named Kennedy.)
7. Lincoln ordered the Treasury to print its own money; Kennedy ordered the Treasury to print its own money.
8. Lincoln gave black Americans freedom and legalized equality; Kennedy enforced equality for black Americans.
9. Both men were shot in the back of their head on a Friday before holiday and while seated next to their wives.
10. According to official records both men were shot by Southerners who were themselves shot before being tried.

11. Both presidents were accompanied by another couple. The male companion of the other couple was wounded by the assassin.
12. Lincoln was shot in Ford's Theatre. Kennedy was shot while riding in a Ford Lincoln.
13. Lincoln sat in box number 7 at Ford's Theatre; Kennedy sat in car number 7 in the motorcade.
14. The doctors who primarily attended to each president were both named Charles. Dr Charles Leale treated Lincoln. Dr Charles Crenshaw treated Kennedy.
15. Lincoln and Kennedy died in places beginning with the initials P and H. Lincoln died in Petersen's House. Kennedy died in Parkland Hospital.
16. Lincoln had 2 sons named Robert and Edward. Edward died young and Robert lived on. Kennedy had 2 brothers named Robert and Edward. Robert died young and Edward lived on.
17. Both men were succeeded by Southerners called Johnson, Andrew Johnson born 1808 and Lyndon Johnson born 1908.
18. Both Johnsons were succeeded as President in '69 by Republicans whose mothers were named Hannah.
19. Both murders were investigated by government commissions the findings of which are still unresolved in the public mind to this day.
20. Andrew Johnson died 10 years after Lincoln's death; Lyndon Johnson died 10 years after Kennedy's death. They looked remarkably similar:

21. Kennedy's father had been the Ambassador to England at the Court of St James; Lincoln's son became the Ambassador to England at the Court of St James.

Other circumstantial similarities:

22. Lincoln's bodyguard was away from his post at the door of the President's box at the theatre; Kennedy's bodyguards were away from their posts on the running-boards of the President's car.
23. Telegraph lines went dead for two hours immediately after Lincoln's assassination. No investigation was ever conducted as to the cause. Telephone lines in Washington DC went down for one hour immediately after Kennedy's assassination. The excuse was overloaded lines. No official investigation was ever conducted.

24. Booth shot Lincoln in a theatre, and allegedly hid in a tobacco barn. The theatre was then converted into a government warehouse. Oswald allegedly shot Kennedy from a government warehouse, and fled to a theatre.
25. The Vatican states that, unlike Jefferson Davis, Lincoln maintained a cold relationship with the Pope – who has officially recognised Davis as the President in place of Lincoln. Kennedy, although officially a Catholic, was a democrat, while the Vatican "was Republican". When Kennedy met Paul VI shortly after the death of John XXIII, the papers reported that "it was nothing short of disgraceful that the head of the most powerful nation on earth would behave—and be received—in such an understated manner." Both Popes, who saw the latter days of Presidents Lincoln and Kennedy respectively, were declared to be on their way to sainthood, with Pius IX beatified and John XXIII even canonised – by the Jesuit Pope Francis. Lincoln fought the Jesuits who were implicated in his murder. Kennedy wanted to separate the State from the Church and the Jesuits are implicated in his murder.

26. The first theory floated after Lincoln was assassinated was the Confederacy was behind the plot. The first theory floated after Kennedy was assassinated was the Communists were behind the plot.
27. After years of investigation, the official story continues to fall apart and strong evidence is emerging that Lincoln was killed by a conspiracy inside his own government. After years of investigation, the official story continues to fall apart and strong evidence is emerging that Kennedy was killed by a conspiracy inside his own government. Both are screens to cover up the masterminds and the real perpetrators.

The ultimate perpetrator is the one who benefited in the long run, most.

The rest were but actors in his play.

There are no coincidences. Even the smallest details of events follow Universal Laws in events of a play called "history", the purpose of which it is to perfect consciousness. The Soul that also incarnated as Abraham Lincoln is the acting God in charge of these Laws.
