

Dear friends and Visitors,

Allow me to greet you in the New Year 2013. This is the threshold into a New Phase of humanity. From 21.12.2012 Souls of the new generation represent the bigger half of incarnations on Earth. The children born today will be kinder and more compassionate than were their parents and grandparents. This is the most wonderful moment in history to live and very good news!

My Spirit Guide Lyseus tells me that the One is crying with Joy, and they celebrate. Let us celebrate with them.

I have not uploaded new articles on Elementary Read or Thematic Texts for a while, because I worked on their translations into Slovak and Czech. Slovakia is my birth country and it is going through a difficult and testing time. It is important to raise the Slovak people's awareness of themselves.

Please spare a thought for Slovakia and her people.

This information may help you to understand why:

I have now finished on this phase of my work and Lysseus hardly lets me sleep with ideas at night, when I am not distracted. There will be new articles coming up soon with more wonderful and joyful news.

I already re-worked "New Phase" and "What makes a Cathar" to reflect the depth of the changes.

I know of you, the most dedicated. I understand why you cannot make contact with me. I feel your presence in my life, and the love that fills you. I hope that you can feel mine. Knowing that you exist makes me very happy and gives me strength. Please continue with your work and do not worry about the future. All is going well. It could not go better, Lysseus tells me.

May the rays of the love of the One accompany your steps.
